Chorus:

Alma Mater through the ages
Let thy glory reign.
Whether fair or stormy weather
Hail, all hail, Newfane.

2. Onward in the path of learning
Hold our steadfast way,
While we from our shelter turning
To the world may say.
3. When our steps are feeble growing
'Neath life's heavy load,
In our hearts the love still growing
Brightens all the road.

OUR THEME

"All the World's a stage
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts,----"
-"As You Like It," Act II, Sc. 7

This year we are thinking of our school as a stage and the life of the school as a dramatic production.

The Board of Education is comparable to the producers, while the administrators are the directors, and the members of the faculty, the assistant directors. The office staff provides the script writers.

Leads in the production are taken by the senior class; underclassmen become the supporting players; understudies are the junior high students; and the grades provide the child stars.

An important part of any production is the backstage work. The custodians, cafeteria workers, and bus drivers constitute the stage crew.

During the production the players indeed take many parts. They may be performing as scholars, on the sports scene, in the realm of music, or in the field of publications.

Now let us take our places in the audience as the curtain rises.

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1954 respectfully dedicates this edition of the Century to Mr. Redmore. He is one of the top men playing the role of director on our school stage.

The Seniors first met Mr. Redmore when he was their seventh grade teacher. Coming here in September, 1948, he taught in the Junior High for three years.

In 1951 he became the Elementary Supervisor, meeting all problems with quiet efficiency. A friend to all, Mr. Redmore has helped with many daily, weekly, and yearly performances.

His cheerful manner and ready smile have helped to light our stage for six years. We hope that he will be at Newfane for many years to come.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Yes, indeed, the school is a stage, and everyone is acting a part in the complex drama of living and learning.

From the dawn of time human beings have come into this world destined to play a part in the Great Dramatist's Plan of world development. As we grow up, we realize that the way we perform each day influences ourselves, our associates, and the world of our days.

What kind of character are you portraying as you go about your activities at home, school, church, and elsewhere? Human thought, when enlightened by truth and inspired by love, is expressed in gentleness and courtesy; also, with authority and conviction.

Great actors, writers, and speakers have been so because of their mastery in the use of language. They have been acutely, sometimes passionately, aware of the significance of words. They have known that success lay not in the words themselves, but in the use of them, in the ability to instill into them the power of vehemence, or restraint, of beauty, melody, and feeling.

As we act out our parts on the stages of school and life, may we realize that every little movement has a meaning all its own in the moulding of character for ourselves, and in letting others know what kind of person we are now---- and very likely will be through the years, and on the stage of the world.

SENIOR OFFICERS

This year, as prologue to the seniors' production, the class elected officers and planned a program. Taking the leads in the production, they assumed their many responsibilities and followed their opportunities.

The curtain went up on Act I, scene 1, successful football dance held in the new elementary gymnasium in September. A succeeding scene was the roller-skating party in Olcott. The senior play, A Murder Has Been Arranged, by Emily Williams, showed the excellent dramatic ability of members of the class. The seniors are indebted to the Lockport Felt Mill for the most generous check of $500 given in lieu of the profit which would have been gained from serving the annual banquet. This banquet was omitted this year. The class also received a large amount of money from the individual student pictures that were sold.

Act II began the 2nd semester with preparations for the Senior Revue, which depicted various experiences of the class throughout the years in skit form. The revue gave everyone a chance to work and have fun together. A spaghetti dinner was served in the school cafeteria before the Wilson basketball game and the class gave a party to the Juniors in March.

The closing act consisted of class night, at which they reminisced over bygone years together the solemn service of baccalaureate, and finally the long-awaited commencement.

The epilogue was the trip to New York City which had been planned and anticipated for two years.

JUNIOR PLAY

The first play given by the Class of '54 was the three-act comedy, "A Mind of Her Own", by Anne Ferring Weatherly. It was presented under the direction of Miss Mary McBrien, April 24 and 25.

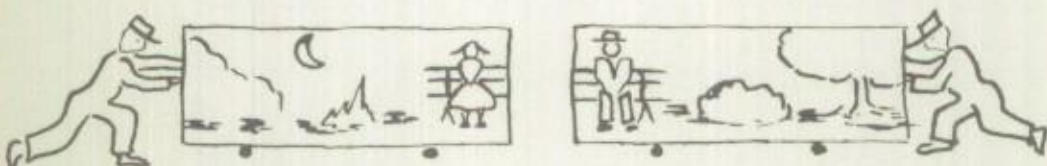

The plot of the play is concerned with teen-age Bunny Bartlett. Being easily influenced by the actions of others and not acting her age, Bunny became quite involved in a situation which almost caused her to lose her boyfriend Steve. Jessica, her sophisticated friend, came to spend a few weeks at the Bartlett cottage and seized the opportunity to take Steve from her. Unknowingly, Bunny was taken in by her smooth talk and practically gave Steve to her. Bunny's brother and sister disliked Jessica and planned a trap for her so that she'd become angry and go home. Unfortunately, Mrs. Phelps, who was there to transact business with Mr. Bartlett, fell into the trap and became very angry.

On Stunt Night Bunny realized what Jessica was doing to her and Steve. Jessica left for home right away. A happy ending was achieved when Steve and Bunny resumed their friendship, this time for life, and Bunny determinedly announced that she had "A Mind of Her Own."

The Class of '54 gave "A Murder Has Been Arranged" by Emlyn Williams, Friday and Saturday, November 20 and 21.

The cast of nine presented this mystery drama in a realistic and exciting atmosphere, with the setting the stage of the St. James Theater in London. The theater had been closed for repairs, but Sir Charles Jasper planned to give a party on the stage in celebration of his fiftieth birthday at which time he was to receive an inheritance.

On the eve of his birthday Sir Charles was murdered by a distant relative, Maurice Mullins.

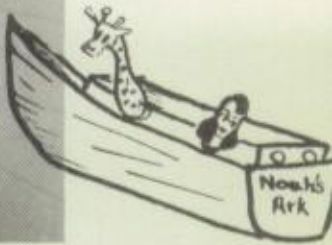

Finally, the murderer was exposed as the curtain went down on the final act. The play was directed by Mrs. Wesley Ives. Art work was under the direction of Mrs. Walter Przondak, stage crew under Mr. John Chiavaro. Mr. Albert Nemeth prepared the music.

SENIOR REVUE

The Seniors staged a review of their school day memories with "Remember The Time" as the theme. A group of alumni meet ten years hence and recall various scenes remembered from their school days. Skits were presented, depicting their first day at school; Pimwe, a character about whom they had studied in school; their teachers; and a health room scene. In closing, the alumni recall members of the entire class at various activities throughout their senior year, and the curtain closes with the singing of the Alma Mater. Mrs. Ruth Day directed the review, and Mr. Albert Nemeth, the band director, led the band in music during the evening.

CLASS WILL

The class of '54 of the school of Newfane, in the county of Niagara and state of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say,

To Mr. Bentley and the faculty, we leave our sincere gratitude for their suffering patience throughout the four years of high school.

From Barbara Ammerman, Ronnie Lamb receives her short, curly, feather cut, while Shirley Capen wills her long, shiny locks to Donna Payne.

Sally Schoelles leaves her "goggles" in gym class to Pat Lucas, while Rose Volschow bequeathes her office job (during fourth period) to Gerry Mael.

While Norma Bixler leaves for the altar with her most treasured Marine, Roselyn Rush leaves for Syracuse. (Howard wouldn't be your reason, would it?)

Tom Kaczor wills his arguments on teenage problems in Special Interest class to anyone who loves to argue, whereas Carol Harding wants Sonny Buncy to have her silly escapades she carried on in the typing room.

Bill Brado wants Bill Britt to have his athletic achievements, while Ruth Bruning leaves her green streaked hair to those smart enough not to peroxide theirs.

Joleen Bates will receive Bev Harding's dates with those out-of-town fellas. Dolores Clare sadly leaves her hot "Plymouth" to anyone who races as well as she does, while Charlie Henderson can't leave fast enough, so he can be married.

Charlie Porter will receive Rena McDonough's ability to type. LaVerne Moon will receive Shirley Tucker's cooking ability.

Ruth Wyman wants Sue Grauer to hang on to her '53 class ring, whereas Rosemary McLean wants only to leave.

Bev Gray and Shirley Malloy, co-editors of the "Centorian", bequeath their job to next year's editor, and Dot Weinheimer wants to leave her editing job of the "Century" to next year's editor, Ann Ehrenhardt.

Gerard Schwach wants the art department to have his ability in making attractive posters, while Yvonne Reinbolt wants Pat Stookey to receive her "Lucille Ball" look.

Shirley Stevens will receive Janie Kropp's job after school in the homemaking room, whereas Jeanine Hague leaves her gum to George Eberhardt.

Dick Newman wants Darrell Greene to have his knack for taking pictures, while Lee Wilson can't leave school soon enough, to join the Navy.

Carolyn Gardner wills her stacks of letters from her serviceman to Jerry Sipple, while Carol Sherman doesn't leave her man.

Bev Gray regretfully leaves her "Q.Y.U." sweater to Sharon Brewer, whereas Bev Neidlinger bequeathes her lunch hour with the kindergarten to Maggie McKnight.

Joanne Hass receives Marsha Power's black-rooted hair, while Kenny Liddell wants Bill Stephanski to have his double talk.

Gary Greenbush will receive Darr Keirn's short brush cut, and Ronnie Webb sorrowfully leaves his record collection to Ronnie Pettitt.

Roger Strong leaves his car keys to Mr. Coppola, while Hughie and Charles Salter leave their many girl friends in the care of Ed Gibney.

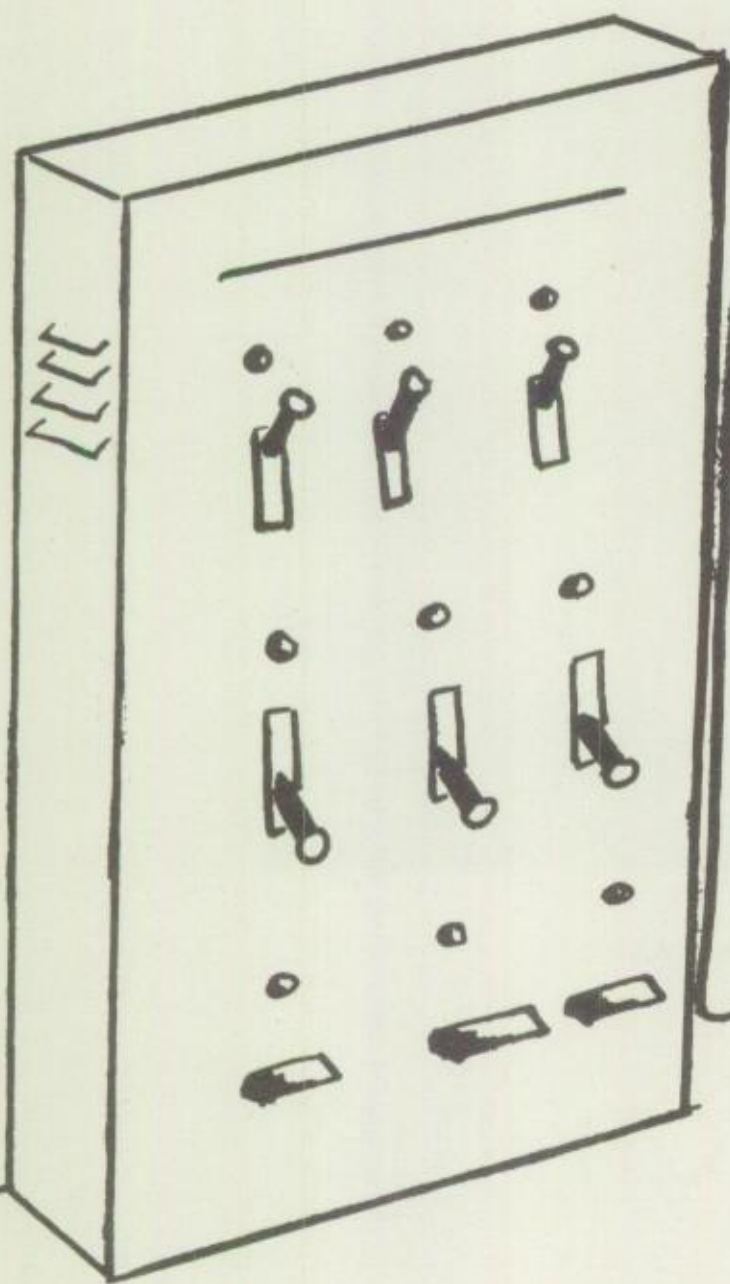

Claudia Wilson leaves her quiet manner to Jack Eaton, while Carol Dussault leaves her large collection of all the books that she's read to the library to fill those empty shelves.

Pat Wilcox, Dick Lute, and Tom Hallifax leave their skating to anyone who finds Outwater Park as pleasant as they did.

Jackie Bush (the senior play assistant director) and Mary Sander (typing editor) leave with pleasure the long hours they spent completing their tasks.

As supporting players of the production, the Junior Class assumed an important role in the performance.

The stage was set for Act I, November 5, 1953, when the class elected their officers and selected their advisors.

In Act II activities began with a hayride on February 27. A Splash Party was scheduled to be held at the Y.M.C.A. in Lockport. Much work and fun accompanied the class's presentation of their play. Another important highlight of the school year was the Junior Prom, held May 14. With the king, queen, orchestra, and beautiful decorations, a good time was had by all.

In the closing act the Juniors rendered services to the Seniors at Class Night. The girls held the blue and white satin ribbons, and the boys ushered.

The Juniors gave a going away party for the Seniors in June. Both classes had fun, and all were sorry to see the year end.

All in all, the Junior Class contributed a great deal to the spirit and activities of the school.

JUNIOR HIGH

The Merchant of Venice
Act III, Sc. 2

ENCORE FOR THE JUNIOR HIGH

In preparing for their role as leads on the stage, the understudies, or junior high students, began to participate in activities which will add to their experience.

This year athletics were very important to the students. The girls participated in intramurals and play days. The boys organized basketball and baseball teams which played other schools.

The various groups put on displays in their homerooms for the other classes. Some of them were on new and old ways of fighting, animals, rocks, and fossils.

In one social studies class a U.N. General Assembly was formed. They had a chairman, and each student represented a country. They discussed problems of the world and how they were affected by these problems.

Many students took part in assemblies throughout the year.

These events will help prepare good actors and actresses for our stage and improve our productions.

BASEBALL

Although the number of wins was not too impressive, Coach Joseph Donovan's 1953 team felt it had a good season. In the final game with Lewiston-Porter the Blue and White had its big chance for league honors, until Lewiston rallied for the win. Charles Porter was the leading hitter for the season with a .393 batting average. The '54 team will miss McDonough, Noon, Ascher, Chamberlin, Obermiller, Strong, and Vincent. This year's team will have much new and unseasoned material, but with a few breaks and a great deal of practice they should provide real competition for the other members of the Niagara Orleans league.

FOOTBALL

This was the first year for eleven man football in N.C.S. The team tried very hard and played well in spite of their inexperience.

Next year's team should prove to be more successful owing to the experience gained during this past season.

The '54 team will be minus the efforts of the following seniors: Bill Brado, Tom Kaczor, Dick Lute, Roger Strong, Mac Pettit, and Lee Wilson.

The 1954 edition of the Varsity had a very successful season. The win and loss column does not show this. Of the first seven games the blue and white lost 5 and won 2. N.C.S. was sparked not only by one man but by all five members of the starting team, who in turn were backed by a strong bench. In the second half of the season they won 5 and lost 2. The team was always in the game fighting. They never gave up until the final buzzer sounded. The season's highlight was beating the Lockport Lions twice. Next year's prospects are very good despite the loss of five seniors.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Junior Varsity participation is the same as that of a farm club in any organized system of athletics. It is from the farm clubs that the stars of future years arise.

A look at the record of this year's J.V. team shows little in the way of victory to anyone who judges a team by its wins and losses. However, the J. V. team this year has gained invaluable experience, and if the participants are followed through their next few years of competition, you will see many of them in the lineups of the varsity squads.

VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team repeated their victory this year by winning the Niagara Orleans League championship again.

They attended the sectionals held at Dunkirk, New York, only to be defeated by Cassadaga Valley, 15 to 5, to come in second in the Round-Robin Tournament.

Prospects are very high for another victorious season, even though the '52-'53 team has lost the services of many senior members.

Dear Rooters,

This past year has been enjoyed and appreciated by the cheerleaders. At the football and basketball games, we always had your loyal support in helping to cheer the teams to victory. Although we didn't win all our games, it still gave the players and the cheerleading squad a good feeling to have all of you with us. Many new cheers and yells were added to our collection and we certainly appreciated your co-operation in learning and using them.

Special thanks to the players who always had good team spirit and sportsmanship in victory or defeat.

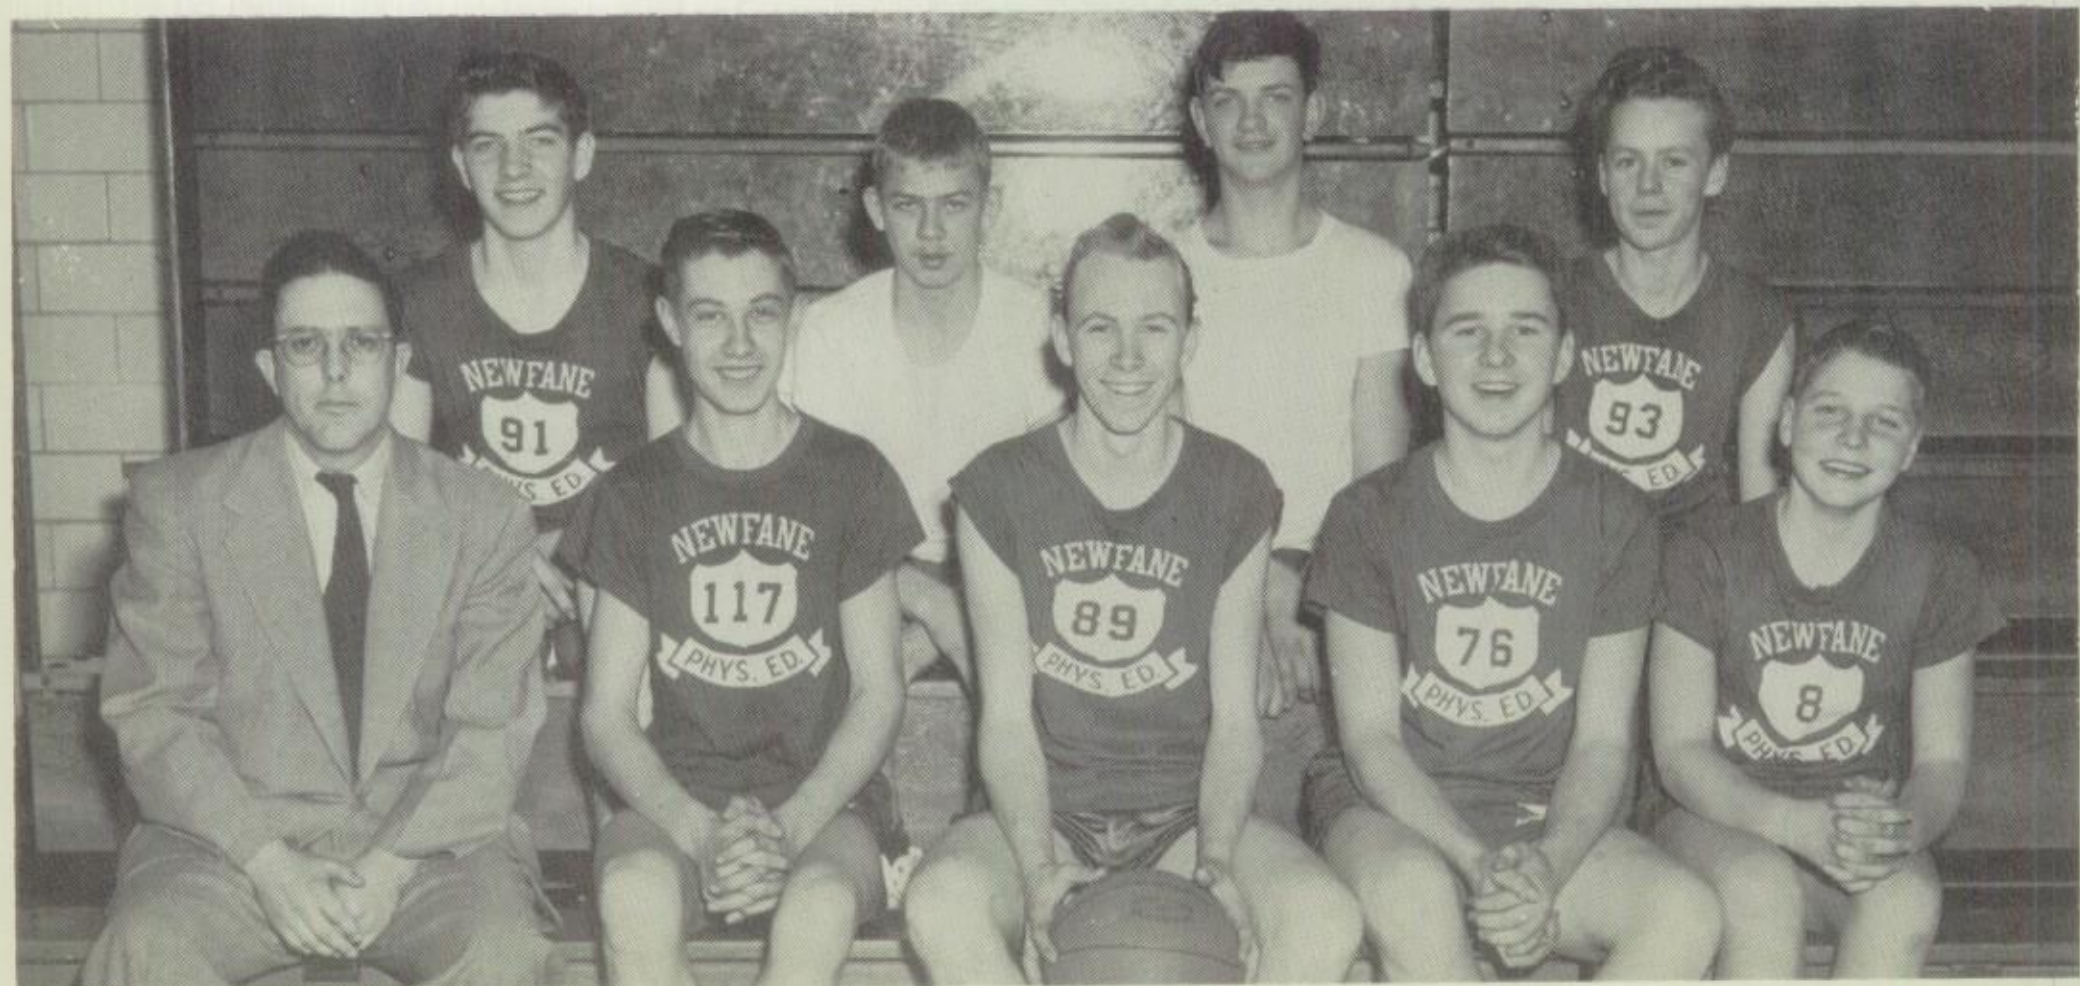

Enthusiastically yours,
The Cheerleaders

GIRLS' ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Girls' Athletic Council, under the capable leadership of Miss Jane Willimas, enjoyed a year of considerable growth and development.

Two girls from each class, 7-12, were selected by class vote on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, and service to the school.

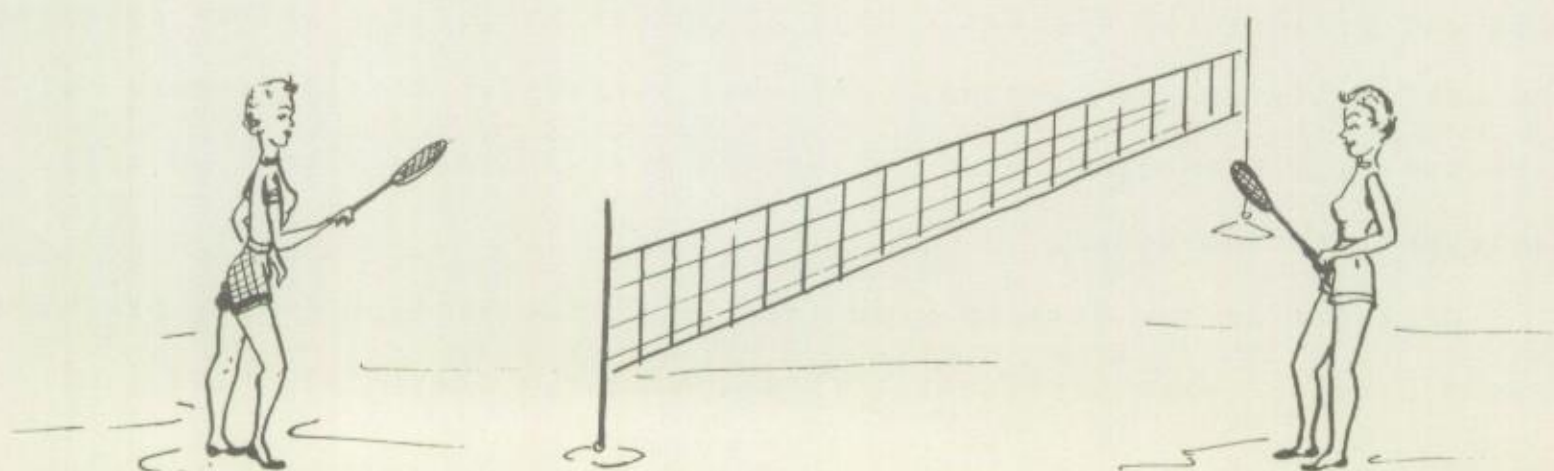

The year's activities began with an informal initiation for the new members.

The success of the "Sock Hop" added greatly to the funds of the organization. Refreshments were sold at basketball games. The G.A.C. also sold girls' shorts for gym classes.

The Council sponsored playdays in soccer and softball in which various schools participated. One playday was held for the girls of our own school only.

Awards were given by the council, in the achievement assembly, to girls who participated in extramurals and attained certain standards. First year awards are felt block letters; second year, gold pins; third year, chenille letters; fourth year, necklaces.

At the end of the year the Council held a picnic at Olcott with the cheerleaders.

VARSITY CLUB

Nine new members were initiated into the Varsity Club, the school's athletic organization for boys. The club, which was organized last year, is composed of those boys who have earned their letter in a varsity sport.

During the basketball assembly the senior members received their treasured Varsity Club jackets. These seniors are William Brado, Thomas Kaczor, Lee Wilson, Malcolm Pettit, Roger Strong, and Richard Lute.

The club introduced the idea of selling gym uniforms to all senior high and junior high classes. This helped bring about a better appearance and uniformity in gym classes. The most successful accomplishment of the club was the presentation of the Second Annual Sports Nite held after the basketball season ended.

Officers of the Varsity Club this year were William Brado, president; Donald Klumpp, vice president; Thomas Kaczor, treasurer, and William Rutland, secretary.

SENIOR CHORUS

The Girls' Senior Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Edward Fritton, commenced its work in September.

At Christmas time the chorus participated in the Annual Christmas Program. They joined with the Junior Chorus to present the Nativity story by means of musical and choral reading.

The chorus sang many new songs this year, which contributed greatly to the musical life of the school. They sang many American folk songs and standard popular numbers.

Mrs. Fritton left the chorus in December and Mrs. Ferrin Fraser became the director in January.

The chorus had a successful year and found a great deal of enjoyment in their work.

JUNIOR CHORUS

Seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls made up the Junior Chorus. They added a great deal to the annual Christmas Concert by their excellent choral reading of the Nativity. They also sang many carols with the Senior Chorus at the program.

Some songs in their repertoire are "My Lover is a Fisherman", "Louisiana Hayride", and "The Big Brown Bear", novelty numbers; "Deep River", a Negro spiritual, and "Lullaby of the Bells".

During the first semester Mrs. Edward Fritton directed the chorus. She resigned in January and Mrs. Ferrin Fraser became director and carried on the program very well for the remainder of the school year.

BOYS' CHORUS

The Boys' Junior Chorus consisted of twenty-five seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys who feel proud that they are the only boys' singing group in the school.

They sang many numbers, including "Wanderin'", "Cindy", and the barber-shop number, "We'll Build A Bungalow".

A few of the boys planned to attend the Niagara County Festival in the spring. They also planned to participate in an assembly program.

Mr. Albert Nemeth began directing the chorus in September, but because of a full schedule, he was replaced at Thanksgiving time by Mr. Russell Johnson.

SENIOR BAND

Mr. Albert Nemeth, instructor for the instrumental part of the music program at N.C.S. this year, was hard at work perfecting the band. Mr. Nemeth met with the band three times a week during the regular school day, as well as two nights a week.

The senior band played at assemblies, at the Senior Revue, and gave a concert in June.

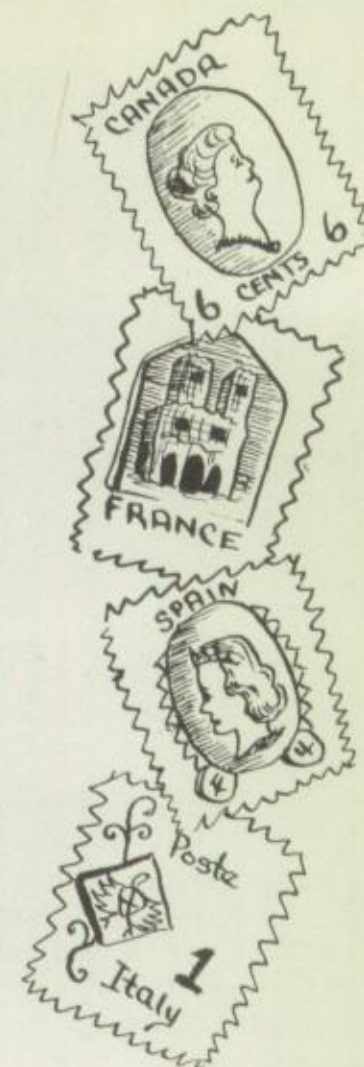

Jazz and classical music were both played and enjoyed by the band.

JUNIOR BAND

This year the Junior Band, under the direction of Mr. Albert Nemeth, had a membership of forty players. It is expected the membership will increase in the future.

The band did much work with ensembles, simple tunes, and marches.

Although there was no concert this year, it is hoped that next year the band will make several appearances at assemblies and festivals.

STAMP CLUB

The stamp club has been in existence for three years. This club is meeting twice a month under the direction of Mr. Jack Aikens. The function of the group is to collect and trade different stamps. During the year 1953 the club put a display in the case for the enjoyment of the pupils. This showed careful filing and sorting and many hours of research necessary to efficient stamp collecting. The club has a "United States Specialized Catalogue" and a weekly stamp paper.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

Twenty-seven boys from grades nine through twelve made up the Industrial Arts Club. Members were those who took industrial arts and mechanical drawing classes or had a specific interest in the club's doings.

The club had many activities. Some of these were assisting in presentation of elementary and high school assembly programs, constructing and setting up scenery for school plays, and taking care of the lighting and sound effects for the plays. The boys worked backstage during community programs. Instruction was given to the club in operating the movie projector, film strip, tape recorder, and opaque projector. These activities developed hobby interests and skills.

This year's program began with the initiation of new members and gym night. Later, shop night was held, during which members could work in the school shop. The boys visited Harrison Radiator, an industrial plant. One of the main events of the year for the club was the I.A. dance. Projects, such as lamps, trays, and candleholders were made by the club and given as door prizes at the dance.

This club was advised by Mr. John Chiavaro and Mr. Raymond Weber.

SENIOR HIGH ART CLUB

Students who are interested in art and its activities constitute the Art Club. The organization carried on many projects throughout the year.

They started with the initiation of new members who were required to assume a character and to bow to antics of the upper classmen. The club attended a lecture on modern painting, given by Dr. Howard Conant, at the Lockport library. They then attended Miss Rogers' art exhibit and tea. Two members helped the Seniors' production by painting the scenery for their play. In December they held a sale of carved styrofoam centerpieces at the Hobby Show in the Hotel Lafayette, in Buffalo.

In April the group was once more Buffalo bound to see the Better Homes Show. Several members revised their model homes and added interesting ideas they learned. Other members continued to carry on their individual projects.

EIGHTH GRADE ART CLUB

The eighth grade art club met every other Monday with its various members doing projects for personal use. They made leather collars, belts, purses, and posters for school assemblies. Experimenting with new and different mediums helped them find what their individual interests concerning art were. These can be further developed in high school.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization which helps boys in the field of agriculture.

The twenty-nine boys in the Newfane chapter had many activities this year. In the fall they held a father and son banquet and a corn test demonstration. An F.F.A. calendar was financed by selling advertisements to merchants in Newfane. The group's picture is on the calendar.

The boys took many field trips throughout the year. In March some boys attended Farm and Home week at Cornell University. Another trip was taken to Rochester, where the boys attended the N.Y.S. Horticulture Society meeting.

These activities contributed a great deal to the agricultural interests of the boys at Newfane. These future farmers will help the community in the years to come.

Mr. Clayton Bridges is advisor to the group.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

The F.H.A., Future Homemakers of America, is a nationally associated organization. The purpose of this group is to foster work in the Home Economic field and further the interests begun in the classes.

The club had many recreational as well as educational projects on its program for the year.

To commence the year's activities, a tea was given for the new members. Later a formal initiation by candlelight was held at the Park Hotel, followed by dinner and dancing. Five of the girls attended the district meeting at Holland.

The girls had many money-making projects throughout the year. They made and sold cookies to people in the school and community. In the fall they gave an "Honest Abe" dance using the Sadie Hawkins theme. A white elephant sale was held, at which articles contributed by members were sold to the students. Holly Hanging proved to be a great success and added considerably to the Christmas spirit of the school.

This organization was really active this year and has hopes to be more so in the future.

LIBRARY CLUB

Forty-seven girls from the ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades made up the Library Club. These girls had various duties which they performed. Besides dusting the books and shelves, they took care of returned books and had desk duty in the library. In the spring the girls went to visit the Acme Binding Company in Buffalo. Miss Julia Crouch is advisor of the Library Club.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

The newspaper staff, which published the Centorian, was composed of twenty-eight members. This year's activity was under the leadership of the co-editors, Shirley Malloy and Beverly Gray. The staff published nine issues of the paper during the school year, giving news of dances, sports, music, class, club, grade and junior high activities. The feature articles, such as "Who's Who" and "Inquiring Reporter" made the paper very interesting. The Editorial Page gave student opinions on timely topics.

In the spring the staff attended the Annual Press Day at St. Bonaventure University.

HOLLY HANGING

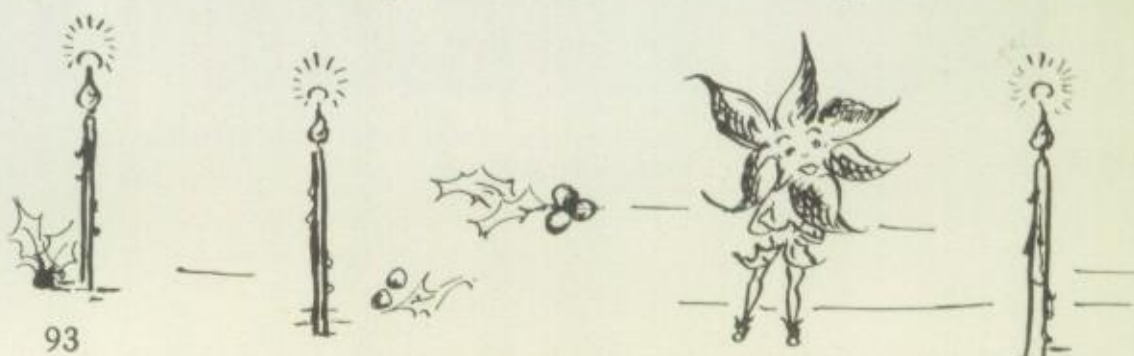

Holly Hanging

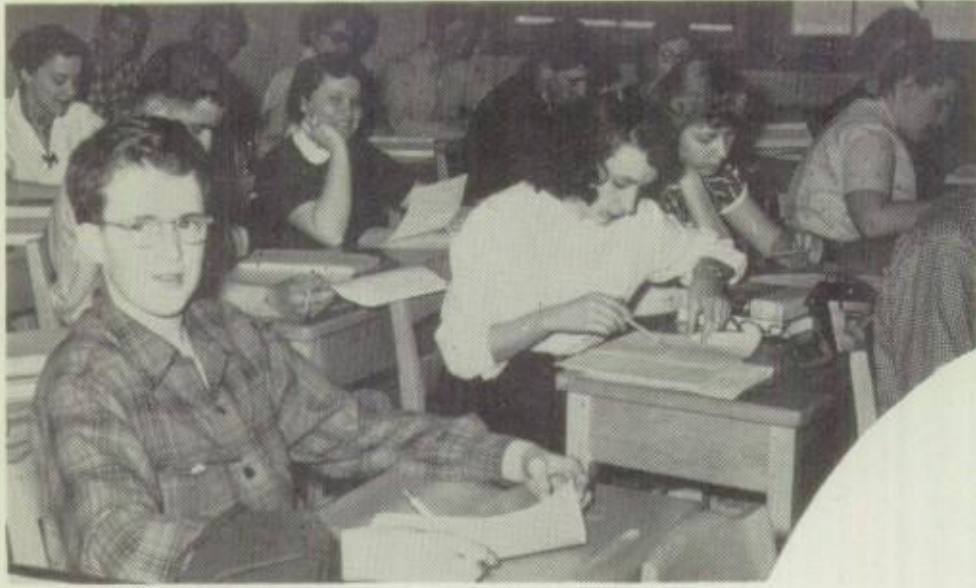

Holly Hanging was held for the first time at Newfane Central School this year. Sponsored by the F.H.A., the decorating of our school for the Christmas season was a great success.

Each class was given an area to decorate and five dollars to buy the materials. Freshmen had the cafeteria; sophomores, the bulletin boards; juniors the gym; and seniors, the study hall and library. An hour was given for decorating, and then the students went to the auditorium to sing carols while their work was being judged. A spaghetti supper followed, after which the first and second prizes were awarded. The junior class won a white ribbon for second prize, and the seniors took first prize and a blue ribbon plus a plaque which will be placed in the trophy case.

After supper a dance was held in the gymnasium to conclude a day full of Christmas spirit and fun.

The Century staff, composed of Seniors and Juniors, held its first meeting in October and chose the "stage" as its theme. Each staff received its deadline and planned its work to tie in with the theme.

In February we started the actual laying out of the yearbook. The business staff sold subscriptions in the study hall every noon and sent home order blanks with the grade students, until April 9, when all sales were closed.

We have spent many long hours on our yearbook. At last it is done. Now we present it to you-- we hope you like it!
